Faculty of Engineering –
Information on the Interdisciplinary Project for the Degree Program Master of Science in Computer Science

Candidates for the degree program Master of Science in Computer Science have to complete modules totaling 18 ECTS in non-specialist areas. Alternatively, they can complete an "interdisciplinary project" encompassing 18 ECTS in a non-related field. As part of this project, the student must complete a thematically appropriate course with either the corresponding examination or a term paper in addition to the project work in the relevant main subject.

The Board of Examiners is responsible for approving the interdisciplinary project at the Faculty of Engineering. Please submit all documents to the Examination Office.
Alle Unterlagen sind beim Prüfungsamt einzureichen.
